

Fact Sheet: Medicare Savings Programs (MSPs)

Qualified Medicare recipients may get help paying for their Medicare Part A and Part B premiums, deductibles, and coinsurance through Medicare Savings Programs. In Tennessee, the Bureau of TennCare processes applications for MSPs. There are 3 different programs that are based on income and resource guidelines:

1. Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB)

Covers:

- ✓ Payments for Medicare Premiums
- ✓ Coverage for Parts A&B deductibles and coinsurance
- ✓ Reduced co-payments for generic and brand-name drugs

Criteria:

Single – $1,153 monthly income and $8,400 in resources
Married – $1,546 monthly income and $12,600 in resources

2. Specified Low-Income Medicare Beneficiary (SLMB)

Covers:

- ✓ Payments for Medicare Part B Premiums
- ✓ Reduced co-payments for generic and brand-name drugs

Criteria:

Single – $1,379 monthly income and $8,400 in resources
Married – $1,851 monthly income and $12,600 in resources

3. Qualifying Individual (QI-1)

Covers:

- ✓ Payments for Medicare Part B Premiums
- ✓ Reduced co-payments for generic and brand-name drugs

Criteria:

Single – $1,549 monthly income and $8,400 in resources
Married – $2,080 monthly income and $12,600 in resources

Note: These income and resource levels are based on 2022 Federal Poverty Level Guidelines. The income limits above do not reflect the additional $20 monthly income disregard. Resources do not include $1,500 per person burial allowance. States vary on how this is counted. CHOICES recipients do not qualify for QI-1.
